Dearest Darling Naomi,

Without your help, I never would have passed Chemistry.

The many answers "bestowed upon me by your kindness" were duly appreciated, believe me. I do bld you had to send your (or else theirs) "raggedy" dress back. I knew you wouldn't like it, because I didn't. Did I ever tell you I sold my pink one to my sister? But that's another story.

Until next year, loads of love and luck.

Don't forget

THE SENIOR CLASS

SAINT BERNARD, OHIO

"Memories" . . .

WHAT ARE MEMORIES, but the haunting themes of melodies, once played in full crescendo? The songs end, but the experiences are not always separated from our souls. So, too, it is with our memories of Our Lady of Angels High School.

Just four years ago, as freshmen, we gazed in awe upon O. L. A.'s halls. We experienced that hilarious initiation day and a host of other events, but it was our first look that counted—that breath-taking sight of those glorious angels, holding aloft their flaming torches of Christian enlightenment. With sincere fervor and enthusiasm we raised our hearts to God with those torches and thanked Him for the memory.

Bittersweet was our sophomore year, for here we delved into deeper study. Hectic, jovial volleyball, basketball, and baseball games became our big moments. We cheered ourselves hoarse for the glory of the Green and Gold. We were now true boosters of O. L. A., no longer rookies. We belonged!

We do not believe we can ever forget the Junior Prom, the highlight of our next year. No matter how many suitors lay their hearts at our feet in the years to come, we shall always recall our prom date, that beautiful corsage, and a glorious evening that ended all too soon. Truly, another happy memory!

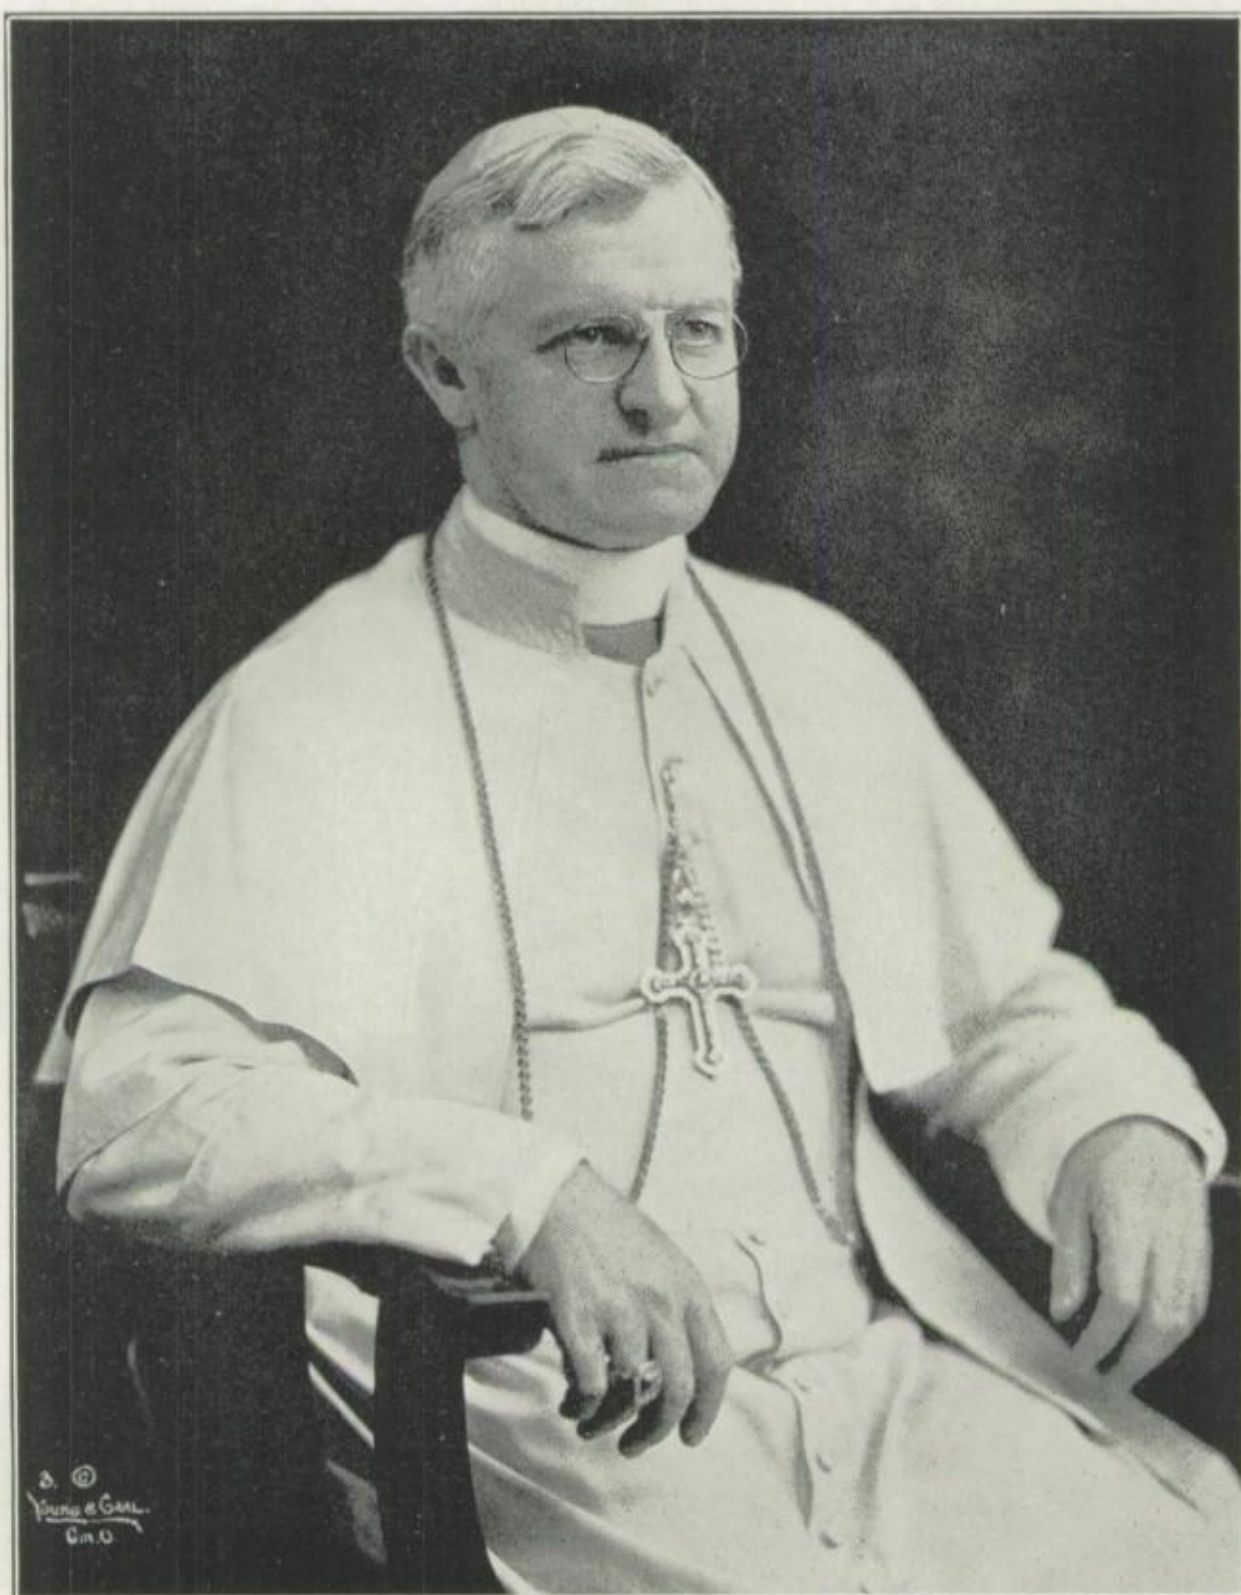

Finally, we are to experience the greatest moment of all—GRADUATION. Unsteady voices will whisper farewell. Clad in immaculate caps and gowns, grasping our long-awaited diplomas, we shall take one last lingering look at our loved Alma Mater.

Even now as we grope for the courage to utter "good-bye," we find consolation in our wonderful memories. Let us hope that the coming years will make us more appreciative, will help us strike the right note on life's highway, so that when Master Death lifts his baton, we shall hear those words that will be music to our ears:

"Come, ye blessed of My Father"

Only then, can we re-live the nostalgic big moments which this, our 1948 Amaranth, presents.

Memories . . .

THERE IS ONLY ONE TIME when memory will function perfectly in every detail. That is the moment we close our eyes in death. Then we shall see once more in the twinkling of an eye every single thought, word, and deed of our life; and we will remember them as our very own! That may be fortunate or unfortunate, depending on what we have to remember!

Accurate as our memory will be then, it is strange that it should be so erratic now. Likewise, it is strange that we can remember more tenaciously and clearly the disagreeable things than the gracious things! At times, this inability is an occasion for real regret, for joys are so fleeting that we would like to taste them all over again! Yet even this disappointing phenomenon is part of God's wise providence, for He would have us wait until eternity for the full attainment of our joy!

Memory, then, is a tricky thing, albeit a wonderful gift of God. Let us hope that it will never fail when it comes to remembering that once upon a time you spent four wonderful years in a school dedicated to Mary. What made those years so wonderful was the fact that Mary was here in spirit! And memory performs its most comforting task when it reminds us that we mortal beings do have a Mother while we are in this vale of tears. "Cause of Our Joy."

"SHEPHERDS

In the Field Abiding" . . .

*A*S shepherds watching over their flocks to see that they are not devoured by the wolf, our pastors have helped us ward off the dangers of a godless education. The Catholic education they have so generously offered us and their interest in our welfare we shall long remember.

We can repay their kindness to us only by using to the best of our ability the advantages they have given us. The balance with interest is paid to them in the next world.

As sheep reward the shepherd with their simple gentleness, so, too, we reward our pastors with our simple "THANK YOU."

Words and Music by SISTERS OF ST. FRANCIS

Allegro con spirito

The musical score is presented in a traditional format with a treble and bass clef for the piano accompaniment and a single treble clef for the vocal line. The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 8/8. The score is divided into several measures, with lyrics placed below the vocal line. A large, irregularly shaped photograph of the school band and choir is superimposed over the middle of the score. The photograph shows a large group of young women, likely the school choir and band, dressed in uniforms, standing in front of a building with arched windows. The photograph is cut out to fit around the musical notation. The lyrics include: "sto - ry, Chant", "rong. - strong. -", and "yes". The score ends with the word "Fine".

Annus To B

The eighth annual Girls' Week will take place from January 1 to 7. The objectives are many, but the most important of these is to make every girl in Cincinnati a little more aware of her responsibilities as an American girl.

Each day of Girls' Week will devote a special phase of girl activities. The program will be followed by "Girl and Her City" and "Girl and Her Career."

But the important part of the program is the "Girl and Her City" which will be held on Saturday, and the girls chosen from the various high schools will visit spots of civic interest. Thursday will be devoted to "Girl and Her Organization," which through the help of the Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, and Girl Reserves, will bring out the best in these organizations in the girl. "Girl and Her Religion" will be held on Friday, and the girls chosen from the various high schools will participate in a "Girl and Her Self" program on Saturday.

*The quiet beauty of our chapel
Bespeaks both love and care;
'Tis a real pleasure to visit,
For Christ the Lord is there.*

*Flickering candles cast their spell
On those who kneel in prayer;
They speak a silent invitation,
For Christ the Lord is there.*

*And suddenly the chimes are heard—
As they're heard everywhere—
The priest lifts up the tiny host—Yes, Christ the Lord is there.*

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Poor Dad! He always has his troubles. Sometimes Mother bothers him, but lately the attitude of his three spoiled daughters and parasitic Cousin Rebecca has set him thinking.

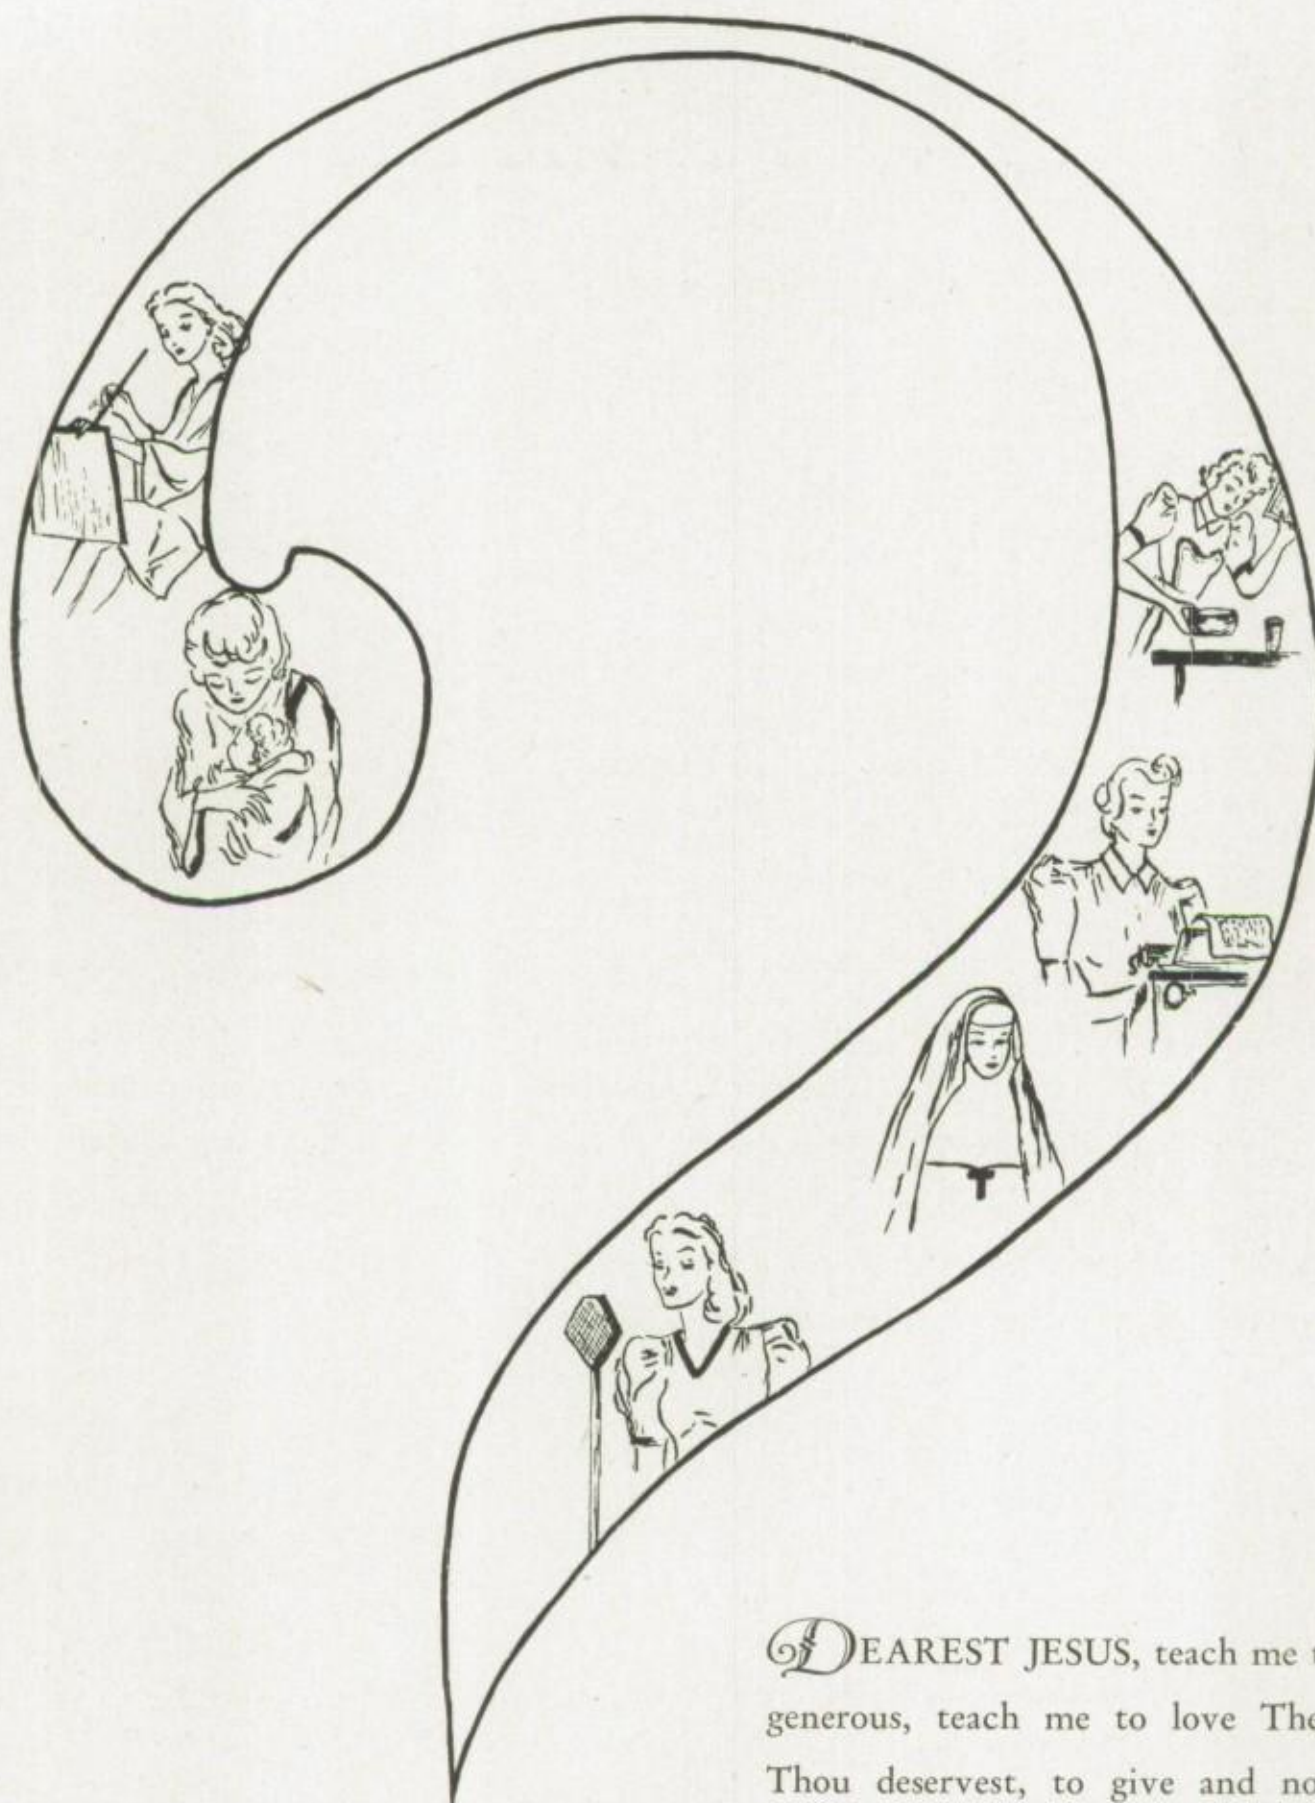

Right then and there the news bursts that father plans to give up his lucrative bank presidency for a small-salaried job as president of a little college in Iowa. Does Mother give up her clubs and start economizing? Do the girls give up their "arty" extravagant schemes and become real women? Does Cousin Rebecca continue to sponge on the Baynards' generosity? Does Dad really become a college president? For particulars, see the following cast of characters in action:

DEAREST JESUS, teach me to be generous, teach me to love Thee as Thou deservest, to give and not to count the cost, to fight and not to heed the wounds, to toil and not to seek for rest, to labor and not to ask reward, save to feel, that I do Thy Holy Will, My God. Amen.

FOR THE FUTURE

In the final analysis, good telephone service depends largely on men and women who are well trained and skilled in their jobs.

Plan now to become a part of the telephone organization when you graduate from high school. You will find that telephone people like their jobs—and that every job is important. The pay is good. The work is steady. The Company's Benefit and Pension Plan helps employees and their families in times of sickness, accident, old age, and death. And the opportunity for advancement is open to all.

Here's to a swell girl. Keep that grin smile
Love "Dotty"

Lots of Luck to a cute and swell gal.
Wish we were in
more places this year
but next year maybe I'll have better luck and have you in them all.
Best of wishes
at Carter.

Here's to one of the sweetest girl's at O. H. A. Remember Don. History. Oh, brother.
Don't forget me ever.

Dear Naomi,
Is the bestest,
goodest girl in every class 'cept History,
a very wonderful
summer. Gene Becker

Dear Naomi,
Please don't forget
me and don't do anything
I wouldn't, although I realize this gives you a great liberty. So, just be good.
Love
Anna

Dear Naomi
Still in our Junior is over with its headaches and joys but we did have lots of joy, such as the Prom. what fun and how we used to talk about a certain gang at school on crying. Love Jody

Dear Naomi,
I'll never forget
a swell girl in all Three classes (Religion Gym & Chemistry)
Please think of me
sometime
Love
Anne Gorey

Dear Naomi,
Lots of luck in your future years at O L A. Have fun this summer and be good
Love

Thelma '49"
